Like most people I love the Warrior Forum and one of my favorite places to go within the Warrior Forum is the Warrior Special Offers section! I can recall how excited I was when I first came across this section and I also recall how much money I spent in the WSO section as well.

Some of the WSO's I bought were awesome and others were not so good. What I found most frustrating was that pretty much every offer sounded like a good deal and I never really knew which WSO I should get and which ones I should hold off on etc.

I am now in a position where I get asked very frequently if I would like a review copy and other times I just have to buy a WSO and find out whether or not I should recommend it to my list or not. So I decided to publish a brief guide recommending my favorite Warrior Special Offers within various categories to make it much easier for someone looking for a Warrior Special Offer that isn't just good but AWESOME and well worth investing not only their money in but their time and effort studying and implementing it to continue to grow their internet marketing business with.

So if you are looking for a AMAZING Warrior Special Offer then simply find a category that you are wanting to find a WSO in and then choose from one of the WSO's that I have recommended!
