

Famous Movie Quotes

How well can your guests match up famous movie quotes to their respective horror film? For that matter, how well can you? The answers are at the bottom of the page so if you too would like to play, be my guest. Add your own favourite movie quotes to the list. Make them as easy or difficult as you like. If you think the people in your group of friends are extremely savvy movie connoisseurs, often bantering about lines from horror flicks, delete the list of movies to choose from and let them fend for themselves!

Game Play

Simple. Print out the list of movie choices and quotes (see pdf at the top of the page). Have your guests see if that can match them up.
